

Trinidad and Tobago Judicial Education Institute (TTJEI)

Duke Street, Port of Spain

February 19-20, 2018

AGENDA

Training Objective:

Participants will (a) understand the importance of gender responsive adjudication to the administration of justice and public trust and confidence and (b) are motivated to apply gender equality protocols to address gender bias in judicial decision-making.

MONDAY FEBRUARY 19, 2018

Faculty: TBC

8:30am – 8:45am Brief Opening Remarks

8:45am – 9:00am Ice Breaker and Review of Training Objectives

Session Objectives:

- a) Participants will leave this session reminded that this is a non-judgmental enabling space for sharing beliefs; and
- b) Participants will outline the three lessons that impacted them most regarding the previous training session.

Action: Museum- participants will be asked again to use post it notes to identify the three lessons that impacted them most and their thoughts on sexual harassment, sexual offences, and DV/IPV.

9:00am – 11:00am Gender Based Violence in the Caribbean

Session Objectives:

- a) Participants will leave this session with clarified understanding of how gender based violence manifests itself in the Caribbean; and
- b) Participants will have a better understanding of their biases and the beliefs about rape, sexual harassment, human trafficking and DV/IPV (Manual Session 4 pg 54 - 55).

Action: PPT and Discussion. Participants will be asked to review of Module 3 Handout 1, Module Handout 4 and 5 pgs 84 - 111 before session, conversation will be held within these contexts.

11:00am – 11:15am BREAK

11:15am – 1:00pm Better Practices on Domestic Violence/Intimate Partner Violence

Session Objectives:

- a) Participants will outline where they see the strengths and challenges in addressing DV/IPV in the courts (Module 3 Handout 2 pgs 66 - 76); and
- b) Participants will leave this session with an understanding of to apply the gender protocol to fortify the strengths and address the gaps.

Action: Case Study, Discussion and Activity. Participants will be asked to discuss the DV/IPV section of the Gender Protocols in small groups and then in plenary (30 mins). They will then be given a case study and asked to outline how they'd apply what is in the protocol (20 mins). In plenary there will be a review and discussion of <http://bangordailynews.com/2013/12/29/opinion/contributors/should-maine-force-reluctant-domestic-violence-victims-to-testify/> followed Activity 1 (55 mins).

1:00pm – 2:00pm LUNCH

2:00pm – 4:00pm The Sexual Offences Guidelines- Better Practices on Sexual Offences

Session Objectives:

- a) Participants will outline where they see the strengths and challenges in addressing Sexual Offences in the courts (Module 3 Handout 3 pgs 77 - 83); and
- b) Participants will leave this session with an understanding of to apply the gender protocol and Sexual Offences guidelines to fortify the strengths and address the gaps.

Action: Case Study, Discussion and Activity. Participants will be asked to discuss the Sexual Offences section of the Gender Protocols in small groups and then in plenary (30 mins). They will then be given a case study and asked to outline how they'd apply what is in the protocol (20 mins). In plenary, there will be a review and discussion of guidelines and further (55 mins).

4:00pm – 4:15pm Day 1 Evaluation

AGENDA

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 20, 2018

8:30am – 9:30am MILLY EXERCISE
(Most Important Lessons Learnt from Day 1 Training)

9:30am – 10:45am JUDICIAL EDUCATION

10:45am – 11:00am BREAK

11:00am – 1:00pm JUDICIAL EDUCATION

1:00pm – 2:00pm LUNCH

2:00pm – 3:15pm JUDICIAL EDUCATION

3:15pm – 4:00pm JUDICIAL EDUCATION

4:00pm – 4:15pm Day 2 Evaluations

4:15pm – 4:30pm Wrap Up Remarks